

Dear parents and players,

We are very excited about this upcoming performance opportunity, which will feature all of our ensembles. While the Bellinggen Youth Orchestra (BYO) takes centre stage, we are delighted that both the Bellinggen Youth Orchestra String School (BYOSS) and Wind School (BYOWS) will present their own featured works. They will also come together as the BYO Cygnet Orchestra, a collaboration that is always a highlight of our concerts.

We are equally pleased that Sinfonia will have the opportunity to showcase its latest musical achievements, demonstrating the ensemble's continued growth, artistry, and dedication. This promises to be a wonderful celebration of the hard work and progress made by all of our young musicians throughout the term.
